Application no. 17975/20

Y.A. v. Greece

Dear Madam,

I acknowledge receipt of your correspondence of 29 April and 4 May 2020 requesting the European Court of Human Rights for interim measures under Rule 39 of the Rules of Court.

Reference for further correspondence

The file has been given the above number which you must refer to in any further correspondence relating to this case.

Decision on interim measure

On 4 May 2020, the Court (the duty judge) decided, in the interests of the parties and the proper conduct of the proceedings before it, to grant an interim order, under Rule 39 of the Rules of Court, indicating to the Greek Government to guarantee to the applicant living conditions compatible with Article 3 of the Convention having regard to her state of health and to provide the applicant with adequate healthcare compatible with her state of health.

The parties' attention is drawn to the fact that failure of a Contracting State to comply with a measure indicated under Rule 39 may entail a breach of Article 34 of the Convention. In this connection, reference is made to paragraphs 128 and 129 of the Grand Chamber judgment of 4 February 2005 in the case of Mamatkulov and Askarov v. Turkey (applications nos. 46827/99 and 46951/99) as well as point 5 of the operative part.

Priority

The Court further decided to give priority to the application under Rule 41.

Anonymity and confidentiality

The Court has decided, under Rule 47 § 4, not to disclose the applicant's identity to the public. In all public documents of the Court the applicant will accordingly be referred to by the letters of the alphabet used in the reference at the head of this letter.

In accordance with the above decision, any documents deposited with the Registry in which the said applicant's name appears or which could otherwise easily lead to her identification should not be made accessible to the public (Rule 33 § 1 of the Rules of Court) and shall remain confidential.

Application form

In order to complete the file, you must send to the Court by 30 June 2020 the original of the application form duly completed together with copies of all relevant documents. Please note that if you send original documents, they will not be returned to you by the Court. If no such information is received by the above date, the application may be struck out of the list of cases without further notice.

Yours faithfully,

p.p.
