Application no. 44193/20
M.S. v. Greece

Dear Sir,

I acknowledge receipt of your correspondence dated 27 October 2020 and received by the Court on 30 October 2020 requesting the European Court of Human Rights for interim measures under Rule 39 of the Rules of Court.

Decision on interim measure

On 2 November 2020, the Court (the duty judge) decided, in the interests of the parties and the proper conduct of the proceedings before it, to indicate to the Government of Greece, under Rule 39, to guarantee to the applicant living conditions compatible with her state of health and provide the applicant with adequate healthcare compatible with her state of health.

The parties' attention is drawn to the fact that failure of a Contracting State to comply with a measure indicated under Rule 39 may entail a breach of Article 34 of the Convention. In this connection, reference is made to paragraphs 128 and 129 of the Grand Chamber judgment of 4 February 2005 in the case of Mamatkulov and Askarov v. Turkey (applications nos. 46827/99 and 46951/99) as well as point 5 of the operative part.

Priority

The Court further decided to give priority to the application under Rule 41.

Anonymity and confidentiality

The Court has decided, under Rule 47 § 4, not to disclose the applicant's identity to the public. In all public documents of the Court the applicant will accordingly be referred to by the letters of the alphabet used in the reference at the head of this letter.

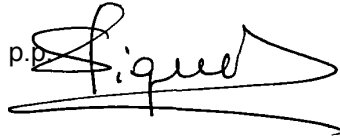

In accordance with the above decision, any documents deposited with the Registry in which the said applicant's name appears or which could otherwise easily lead to her identification should not be made accessible to the public (Rule 33 § 1 of the Rules of Court) and shall remain confidential.

Additional information

You should inform the Court of any change in your address or email or that of the applicant. Furthermore, you must inform the Court about any major developments regarding the above case, and submit any further relevant decisions of the domestic authorities.

During the proceedings the Court may send the applicant a request for information. Failure to reply to that request may lead the Court to conclude that the applicant is no longer interested in pursuing her application and to strike it out of its list of cases.

Yours faithfully,

p.p.
