

MENTAL HEALTH TASK FORCE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Position: Volunteer for the IHR
Mental Health Task Force

Commitment: Minimum 3 hours/week

Location: Remote

Starting Date: As soon as possible

Short Description

I HAVE RIGHTS is looking for remote volunteers to join our mental health task force. The main role of the task force is to support volunteer caseworkers who provide legal information to people seeking asylum on Samos, Greece. We offer regular check-in calls, preparation workshops before arrival on Samos, external training on Trauma-Informed practices, and are in charge of IHR mental health policies and guidelines.

Possible Tasks

- Regular Check-In Calls to Caseworkers on Samos
- Presenting at Preparation Workshops
- Mediating conflicts
- Attendance at task force meetings

Requirements

- Experience with working with people on the move or own experience of migration (desirable)
- Experience with Psychology, Mental Health, Casework, or Active Listening (e.g. helpline)
- Fluency in English
- Commitment for at least 3 hours per week

Benefits

- Collective learning
- Contribution to a developing project
- Flexible working hours
- Volunteer certificate

If you want to support our work and volunteer with us, please send us an e-mail with your CV to info@ihaverights.eu

We're looking forward to meeting you!